

Worksite Services

If you send your employees off site for health, medical and compliance-related services, you may be paying twice. The hidden costs of lost time and lost productivity can easily exceed the direct costs of care. HealthForce Worksite Services are designed to help you avoid these absence-related costs.

We offer a full menu of flexible services that you can order whenever and wherever you need them. We also help you maximize your time and reduce expenses while providing the highest-quality services to keep your employees healthy, safe and productive.

Services available at your worksite

- » Mobile Medic Injury Care, including first aid (when appropriate), to help you manage unpredictable incidents as they occur and ensure that your employees receive prompt, high-quality care
- » On-Site Medical Staffing, including medical oversight and 24/7 support, for employers with their own worksite-based clinics
- » Drug and Alcohol Services to help you maintain a productive, substance-free workplace and, following an incident, determine whether drugs or alcohol were involved
- » Immunizations and Vaccinations, including flu shots, to keep employees healthy and productive
- » Comprehensive Medical Examinations, customized to the employer, industry, job demands and other factors, to address all relevant physical and psychological aspects of an employee's health
- » Surveillance Blood Draws to detect and monitor workplace exposures and health risks in individuals and employee populations
- » Respiratory Questionnaires and Exams to identify workers needing further medical evaluation before using a respirator, as well as Respirator Fit Testing for those who require a respirator to perform their job functions
- » Audiometric Testing to measure the acuity of employees' hearing
- » Integrated Functional Fitness Services, including Job Coaching, to identify and address potential risk factors in the workplace before they result in injuries, lost time, and disability claims
- » Early Intervention Services to help injured employees return to normal function at home and work as quickly and safely as possible
- » Physical and Occupational Therapy, in the event of employee injury or illness, to help the individual prevent further complications and successfully transition back to work
- » Health Screenings to collect and measure workers' specific health parameters, assess the health status of defined populations, and develop health education and at-risk intervention efforts
- » Ergonomic Assessments and Training to provide employees with useful tools and techniques to prevent and minimize on-the-job injuries
- » Bloodborne and Airborne Pathogen Training on the proper use of personal protective equipment to protect workers from Hepatitis A and B, HIV, SARS, TB and other diseases
- » Safety, CPR and First-Aid Training to help prepare your employees for injuries, illnesses and other health-related incidents in the workplace
- » AED Medical Direction Services, providing full support and oversight for companies with on-site Automated External Defibrillators
